New Releases

BLACKOUT PROBLEMS

Blackout Problems have released their brand new single, 'FUNERAL', the latest song to be taken from their forthcoming album 'RIOT' out February 23rd.

Regarding the single frontman Mario Radetzky says, "This song is extremely close to my heart. Shortly before the album was finished, I was sitting at the dining table in my shared flat thinking about how dark the record was going to be. But it wasn't all bad. There were also people who kept me going in the most difficult moments, who made me laugh even when I didn't really feel like it."

THE INTERSPHERE

The Intersphere have released their brand new single, 'All We Need'.

Christoph Hessler explains: "'All We Need' deals with the idea of minimalism and the search to find satisfaction in the small, immaterial things. Especially now, during the Christmas season, when consumerism is in full swing and new supposed needs are constantly being awakened during Black Friday, we ask ourselves what we actually need. We quickly realise that consumption is only a fraction of what it means to lead a sustainable and happy life."

COURTING

Liverpool four-piece Courting have shared a new single titled 'Emily G'. The track follows the band's recent return with details of their highly anticipated new album 'New Last Name', out January 26th!

"It's a theatrical play within an album," explains frontman Sean Murphy O'Neill. ". 'There's a lot going on. It can be simply enjoyed as an album, but there are characters, acts, stage directions etc. The listeners can decide on the narrative themselves, but we want them to get lost in it.'"

Murphy O'Neill says, "'Emily G' is the centrepiece of the album, the 5th act of our play. She is a story found in a magazine and a real person. A tale of right place, wrong time. Something to dance to."

KID KAPICHI

Kid Kapichi have shared new single, '999' ahead of the release of new album, 'There Goes The Neighbourhood' on March 15th.

Sharing the single the band said "People have a right to feel angry and betrayed by the lack of accountability for police misconduct in this country, it's a disgrace. It shouldn't take widespread public unrest, social media outrage, or protest for police to be held to account for crimes and misconduct, it should be the norm."

LAURAN HIBBERD

Lauran Hibberd has this week shared new single, 'pretty good for a bad day', which features All Time Low frontman Alex Gaskarth.

The track comes ahead of Hibberd's upcoming sophomore album, 'girlfriend material', which arrives on March 22nd!

SUM 41

'Heaven :x: Hell' - Sum 41's new and final album will be released March 29, 2024!

Alongside confirmation of the album comes new single, 'Rise Up'!

On the new album, vocalist Deryck Whibley says: "Once I heard the music, I was confident enough to say, 'This is the record I'd like to go out on.' We've made a double album of pop punk and metal, and it makes sense. It took a long time for us to pave this lane for ourselves, but we did, and it's unique to us."

BLACKGOLD X HYRO THE HERO

BLACKGOLD and American rapper, HYRO THE HERO have collaborated on a new single 'Old School Sound'.

BLACKGOLD say: "This track was all about recreating the vibe you would get from a Beastie boys track & video. Rock music can be so serious and bands like them remind us is ok to have fun with it and it still be real and to team up with Hyro on this was a vibe."

HYRO adds: "We def took it back to the Old School with 'Old School Sound'. I was excited to be a part of this with BLACKGOLD because it honours the sound of hip hop in the past with that punk rock style. Definitely an exciting song for this vintage era you can repeat over and over."

DISCOVER

KITE THIEF

Kite Thief release debut EP 'Ambiviolent' and share the title-track!

Elin - "Ambiviolent is a very special song, it is our EP title track for a reason. This is an outlet for our existential crises, a channel for our frustration of 'what the fuck is going on in the world? Is what we are doing even worth it? What is the point in anything in times like this?'. The song embodies our trying to come to terms with all this, in an attempt to make some sort of meaning out of our seemingly insignificant lives while we navigate through all the chaos and destruction. I don't think we have got there yet, I don't know if we ever will, or if anyone ever does, but the only way we know how to try is by putting it into music, almost like a handwritten cry for help to the universe."

Ocean Colour Scene

UEA LCR, Norwich

Magazine
EXCLUSIVE

Thursday 14th December 2023

This date at the UEA LCR in Norwich sold out almost instantly for Ocean Colour Scene when it was announced and anticipation does appear to be high for the show tonight. Support act Burr Island are able to capitalise on this with a short but impressive slot winning over the packed venue.

Once the time comes for the headliners to arrive on stage they receive a hero's welcome, and throughout the crowd seem in awe of the Britpop icons. That's not an unreasonable response as they are a superb collection of musicians and they have the hits to back it up.

Tonight sees them deliver a sublime ninety minutes of indie rock with the obvious likes of 'The Riverboat Song', 'Hundred Mile High City' and set closer 'The Day We Caught the Train' all eliciting some memorable sing-a-longs.

LIVE REVIEW

PET NEEDS

Sub Zero, Colchester

Saturday 16th December 2023

Magazine
EXCLUSIVE

Tonight is the third annual 'Fractured Party' hosted by PET NEEDS. The band have garnered something of a cult following in recent years and each 'party' has found them in increasingly bigger venues across their hometown. After a logistical minefield, this year places them on the campus of the local University at the Sub Zero nightclub.

The venue is packed from the get go and there's certainly a party atmosphere inside. Opener Henshaw has the crowd hanging off of every lyric and plays the role of conductor to a tee. Fans are also treated to a special trimmed down set from Lottery Winners including a rendition of Billy Bragg's 'A New England' where every line is sung back at full volume.

By the time that PET NEEDS hit the stage everyone is ready to properly party, and the band really know how to throw one! A special setlist includes fan favourites, older rarities and a handful of new tunes to whet the appetite for upcoming release, 'Intermittent Fast Living'. It's clearly an emotive night for the band and their hardcore fans, and ultimately it's one that delivers on the hype. The 'Fractured Party' is fast becoming the stuff of legend and the third edition will last long in the memory!

TAKEDOWN FESTIVAL

Takedown Festival has unveiled the day and stage splits of the 2024 edition and announced nine more artists confirmed to play the festival.

Joining the line-up will be London mathcore masters Pupil Slicer who will be performing their critically acclaimed new album 'Blossom' in full, UK nu-metal star Dejuvhs, Acres, The Hara, Calva Louise, Blanket, Harbinger, Lastelle, and Sumer.

The announcement of day and stage splits has revealed that Creeper will be headlining the Laney Stage on the Saturday, just after nu-gen star Cassyette takes to the stage. The Saturday line-up also sees Kid Kapachi headlining the Total Rock Stage, Graphic Nature closing the 'Metal For Good' stage and Mimi Barks topping the 'Divergent' stage. On the Sunday, Dinosaur Pile-Up will be the closing the festival as headliners of the Laney Stage, Terrorvision will be concluding to Total Rock Stage, Pupil Slicer take on the 'Metal For Good' stage with URNE topping the 'Divergent' stage.

Kai and Sarah Harris of Takedown Festival Ltd said, "We are excited to unveil the day splits and announce a new wave of bands that will be joining the Takedown 2024 lineup, including the addition of On Wednesdays We Wear Black podcast as our main stage comperes. Our commitment to pushing the boundaries of the metal, alternative, and rock genres remains unwavering, and we are confident that we have crafted a distinctive lineup for this year's event."

For the first time ever, Takedown Festival will span over two days, taking place on Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th of April 2024 at the Portsmouth Guildhall.

FLOYA - 'Drift'

FLOYA have announced their debut album 'Yume', due for release on 8th March. The band have also released their new single 'Drift'.

"I don't think I've ever written a song this honest before," says vocalist Phil Bayer. "I've grappled with ambivalent emotions toward my career, to be completely transparent. There were moments when I doubted whether I could continue doing what I love. I turned my back on music for a while and, as a result, lost a significant part of my identity. 'Drift' is about precisely that: dealing with ambivalence, overcoming doubts, and enabling you to continue doing what you love."

ryl blonde - 'Girl in Your Story'

ryl blonde reveals her new single, 'Girl in Your Story'.

"My artwork across various mediums has often played with ideas of female tropes and stereotypes. 'Girl in Your Story' continues that exploration of my own identity, through performance and by embodying these various characters," she elaborates. "At the end of the day, behind every scorned woman is just a hopeless romantic. Nothing consumes quite like a crush...and while it was devastating to realize my tendency to fantasize was not limited to men, it was also a very affirming moment in my queer journey to realize I could imagine my life with another woman."

State of You - 'The New Depression'

UK hardcore-meets-rock'n'roll upstarts State Of You have released a brand new single 'The New Depression'.

As the band say: "'The New Depression' is about the absolute shit show of the current economic climate and our visceral reaction to it."
